NO CONFIRMATION OF THE DECREE

VICE CONSUL GOO KIM FUI HAS RECEIVED NEITHER OFFICIAL
NOR UNOFFICIAL ADVICES.

Chinese Vice Consul Goo Kim Fui was asked today if he had any information regarding the alleged decree of the Imperial Chinese Court ordering an investigation of the Chinese Consul at this port on charges preferred by Censor Kwan Yung Jar.

"I have received no word whatever, regarding it," he replied. "Neither official nor unofficial correspondence has any reference to it. Nor did I see anything in the Chinese papers concerning it, though I did not receive the files of the Shanghai papers which I usually receive. I have heard nothing of the matter except what has been published here. Neither my advices from Washington nor from China contained anything about it."

Yang Wei Pin sailed for China July 30, on a three months leave of absence. His consular service on the mainland and here entitles him to six months vacation, so that his leave may be extended. He came to Honolulu in 1918 following the annexation of the Islands which reduced the post here from one of diplomatic to one of only consular rank.

TOWED SMALL SCHOONER.

The little island schooner Ka Mo does things in style. She was towed out of the harbor this morning by the tug Fearless as if the little craft had been a big square rigger. The Ka Mo is bound for Paoulo with lumber and general freight.

TOURIST LITERATURE OF HAWAII WANTED

SECRETARY COOPER'S OFFICIAL
HANDBOOK PROJECT IS ABANDONED—PRIVATE ENTERPRISE IS ENGAGED ON ONE.

Handbooks of Hawaii and advertising literature of the islands received considerable discussion by the members of the Chamber of Commerce this morning. It came up in several forms. It came up first in regard to the matter of the handbook on Hawaii in course of preparation by Secretary of the Territory Cooper, J. G. Spencer reported that he had conferred with Secretary Cooper and had found that this proposed publication had been abandoned, mainly because the appropriation was not sufficient to carry it out, but partly, Mr. Spencer thought, because the time and attention of Secretary Cooper was pretty well taken up at the present time with his numerous pro tempore appointments.

It came up again in connection with the following letter dated San Francisco, September 26, from Walter C. Weed:

"Since writing you I have completed my engagements at Oakland, where I had very interesting and satisfactory audiences. Between that and the time of giving a lecture at Twelfth street, this city, I ran up to Lake Tahoe, returning on Tuesday for my lecture here that evening. At Tahoe I could get no gas for the lantern, but had the pleasure of entertaining some of the guests at the Tahoe by a parlor talk and exhibiting some 300 Hawaiian views. Several persons were much interested, some of whom may visit the islands during the year."

"I find myself sadly in need of literature and shall be pleased to have any such as you or the members of the Board may be able to furnish me. I have made arrangements whereby the railroad will transport such for me as my baggage, without additional charge. The mounted views I have on cards 30 by 40 attract a great deal of attention, and they stand me in good stead in every district in preparing a way for the lectures and talks. Will you please see that some island literature is sent to the following persons (a list with addresses following):

"I am confident that if these people are cultivated, some of them will visit Hawaii at their next outing."

In relation to this letter Secretary Spencer said that the only literature he had to send in response to the requests in this letter were a publication of the Oahu Railway & Land Company, one by Wilder's Steamship Company, and one or two similar ones. It was stated that a handbook which is in course of preparation and in which business men had been asked to advertise could hardly be expected to be ready before the expiration of the six months' time limit set for its publication. W. W. Harris said the Merchants' Association had been asked to give its approval of a proposed handbook publication, but it had held that it could not give its approval without an opportunity to examine all the matter it was proposed should be included in the publication, which of course could not be done until it was ready for publication.

Mr. Swanzy asked what response had been received from the High Sheriff in regard to the matter of explosives kept in stock beyond the limit allowed by law. In answer to this the following letter from the High Sheriff was read:

Honolulu, H. T., Sept. 23, 1922.

James G. Spencer, Esq., Sec. Honolulu Chamber of Commerce, Honolulu, H. T.

Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your favor of the 12th, in re storing of Kerosene Oil, Gasoline and Turpentine in places outside of the Government Warehouse in quantities exceeding the amount allowed by law. In reply I beg to state that after the fire on August 23rd in the Campbell Block I detailed an Officer to visit every establishment in Honolulu where I had reason to believe that Oil, Gasoline or Turpentine was stored, with a view of ascertaining whether or not the law was being violated. Only one such case was found, that of a Chinaman, who had sixteen cases of Kerosene oil in his store. He was prosecuted and convicted.

The Hawaiian Hardware Company at the time of the fire had in their warehouse some forty cases of Spirits of Turpentine, and the Manager, Mr. Fernandez, has since been prosecuted and convicted.

I propose in future to have an inspection made, at least once every two weeks, of all places where Oil, Gasoline and Turpentine is stored, and see that the law is strictly enforced.

I believe that the law as it stands is sufficiently clear and explicit, and all that is needed is a strict enforcement of the same, which I assure you I intend to carry out.

Yours truly,
A. M. BROWN,
High Sheriff, Territory of Hawaii.

Secretary Spencer reported that he had been appointed a committee to have the by-laws of the Chamber printed. This was being done but was not yet completed.

Those present were C. M. Cooke, J. G. Spencer, J. B. Atherton, Col. W. F. Allen, H. A. Isenberg, J. A. McCandless, W. M. Giffard, F. Swanzy, H. E. Wally and W. W. Harris.

TRANSPORT THOMAS EXPECTED.
The U. S. transport Thomas was scheduled to sail from San Francisco October 1 for Manila via Honolulu. She has as her special passenger, Lieutenant-General Nelson A. Miles, commander-in-chief of the American army. He is going to make a tour of inspection in the Philippines. The transport usually takes eight days in which to make the trip to Honolulu from San Francisco. The Thomas may be down in less time, however, and be sighted late this afternoon or tonight. She will probably have four days later mail and news files.

COLBURN'S AFFIDAVIT.
The motion of the Kaplani Estate to reopen the default in the case of M. S. Grinbaum & Company against the Kaplani Estate, was denied this morning by Judge Robinson. This is the motion that was based on Colburn's affidavit that the reason why he had allowed the matter to go by default was that he had forgotten all about the suit.

BARBERS CAN WORK ON SUNDAY

CAN CALL "NEXT" ALL DAY LONG
IF THERE ARE CUSTOMERS IN SIGHT—WILCOX'S DECISION.

The Sunday law was knocked out this morning by Judge Wilcox. In future the Honolulu public can enjoy a real Continental Sunday where his face may be shaved at all hours and he can do pretty much as he does on week days.

As the result of Judge Wilcox's decision the police will make no further attempt to enforce the Sunday laws. In fact there are no laws to enforce. The case which resulted in the Sunday law being placed hors de combat was that against five Chinese barbers who had been arrested for conducting their places of business last Sunday after 9 o'clock in the morning. They were charged with violating Section 317 of the Penal Laws.

This section held that all labor except that for mercy and necessity, should be prohibited on Sunday. Certain exceptions were made however, among them being that of barbers who were permitted to conduct their work until 9 a. m. Sunday.

F. M. Brooks appeared for the defendants. The case was begun yesterday afternoon and was again called this morning. Brooks cited his authorities at today's session. He raised the point that the law upon the Hawaiian statutes was practically a class legislation. It was not general in that it failed to govern the labor of all classes. The barbers were singled out in this instance and their hours for Sunday labor curtailed. Steamships, steam cars, electric cars and other classes of labor were permitted however to operate on Sunday without restraint or interference.

In support of his contention that the Hawaiian Sunday law was unconstitutional, Mr. Brooks cited a decision by the Supreme Court of California delivered in 1896 in an almost identical case. A law had been enacted in California the year previous, prohibiting barbers from working after noon on Sundays. Leo Jentzsch a barber, violated the law and appealed the case to the Supreme court.

The prosecution offered nothing against the authorities quoted by Mr. Brooks. Judge Wilcox took a view similar to that held by the attorney for the defendants. Judge Wilcox said that when he was in the legislature, C. R. Bishop had been instrumental in having the law introduced. The court had then doubts as to its constitutionality and so informed Mr. Bishop. The court sustained the defendants and the prisoners were discharged.

As the result of this decision, the police have been relieved of a lot of responsibility. They will not have to try to enforce the law and, for further effort along that line will be made as Judge Wilcox has taken the matter out of their jurisdiction.

HAD POSSESSION.
Sigita a Japanese went to a native woman who lives at Waikiki and demanded that she pay him for having performed some work on a fence about her place. She did not pay him as promptly as he thought she should, so he is alleged to have threatened that she would die if she failed to liquidate. The woman ran out of the house and the Japanese went inside. When the officers went to investigate the affair, they learned that the Japanese had camped. The court placed the defendant under $10 bonds for six months, to keep the peace.

NUMEROUS LIQUOR CASES.
Six liquor cases were called in the police court this morning. The only defendant tried was a native named J. Kamal. He claimed that instead of selling the beer and gin to the special officer, as claimed, he had given the officer a bottle of beer to drink. The defendant was fined $25. Two similar charges against M. J. Borges the Kalihi store keeper were postponed until Saturday and three charges against K. Yamane were continued until tomorrow.

THE GIBSON ESTATE.
Judge De Bolt has appointed F. H. Hayselden administrator with the will annexed of the estate of W. M. Gibson, deceased. The accounts of David Dayton, who resigned as administrator, were approved.
